

SEPTEMBER 2022 SPECIAL NEWSLETTER

Good morning all,

We wanted to give an update on our Strategic Planning process. We had a successful meeting last night in the southern Midcoast area. About 20 people participated in last night’s MCOG strategic planning forum for the Brunswick, Harpswell and Sagadahoc County subregion. The forum was hosted by the City of Bath and facilitated by Mathew Eddy. Bath, Brunswick and Harpswell were well-represented, and participants were generous in offering Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats, which they then prioritized at the conclusion of the forum.

We have more meetings indicated in the schedule below. More information can be found on our website. All meetings start at 5:30pm.
